

CITY AND NEIGHBORHOOD.

Weather for today: Fair. Yesterday in Salt Lake: Maximum temperature, 37 degrees; minimum, 24 degrees.

Father Murphy arrived home last evening after a pleasant holiday vacation spent among friends in Montana, and is ready to resume his school duties at All Hallows this morning.

The holiday is over for the schools, not only the city schools, but the other schools as well, and this morning pupils, old and young, will resume their work where it was dropped before Christmas.

Rev. J. H. Brown, formerly of Hanna, Wyo., preached to a large-sized congregation at the A. M. E. church on Franklin avenue Sunday morning. His sermon was instructive and was attentively listened to.

Evergreen lodge No. 131 of the Fraternal Union of America held an important meeting last Monday night. Another meeting of a business nature will be held this evening at which the new officers will be installed.

The Patti party arrived in town yesterday afternoon and registered as follows: The Knutsford, McKnight, Ronalds, Supple, A. Morin, Rosa, Gamble, Mrs. Charles Lamuel, Vera Margolis, Mrs. Francke and E. Hendricks. Madam Adelina Patti did not arrive and left strict orders with the clerk that she would see absolutely no one.

Westminster Presbyterian church was crowded to the doors last evening, the special attraction being the beautiful musical programme, "The Holy City," in a novel arrangement for the choir proved to be unusually pleasing and effective. The pastor, delivered a very timely and sensible address on "New Year Resolutions."

Knutsford Hotel.

The one place for comfort and elegance. Fireproof; telephones in every room; modern in every way.

POPULAR BAND CONCERT.

The Usual Good Sunday Night Audience Applauded the Good Things in the Programme.

The usual crowd was in attendance at the Heid's band concert at the Grand last night, the lower floor and boxes being well filled. The programme was of the popular order, and evidently pleased the patrons.

The demand for musical gymnastics was gratified by a cornet solo, "The Conquering Hero," by William Leslie. The selection was full of the so-called variations, runs, arpeggios and other lung-developing exercises which belong more properly to physical culture than to music. Mr. Leslie did what was expected of him, however, in commendable fashion, but was much more pleasing in an encore piece of his own selection, a little song by DeKoven.

The ballet, "Les Fleurs," by Leo DeLucca, was the vehicle chosen for a clarinet solo by Walter Sims. Now the clarinet is a most excellent instrument in its place, which is to give the violins effects to orchestral selections when played by a band. But a single clarinet, alone and unsupported, rarely within the range of orchestral selections can be furnished. We started successfully ninety last year. Address lock box 229, Chicago, Ill.

MISS RUTH WILSON, the vocalist of the evening, was quite pleasing in her second selection, "Irish Love Song," by Lang. Her voice was entirely within the range of her capabilities. The same could hardly be said of her first song, "The Swallowtail." The prison scene, "Miss Trimmie," rendered as a duet by Mr. Zimmerman and Mr. Stevens, was somewhat marred by the constant fluting of the baritone.

The "Patrol of the Gnomes," a number of the programme, was so satisfying it is a wonder more such light and airy selections are not chosen for the overture at the close was sufficiently clamorous to please all who craved sufficient effects.

The announcement of several really new things for next Sunday was received with great favor. Charles Kent is to be the vocal soloist, the first time a male singer has appeared this season.

Knights of Zion.

Utah Kadimah Gate No. 87 and Sir Montefiore Gate No. 84, of the Knights of Zion, had a public installation of officers at the B. H. hall last evening. Deputy Grand Master M. Graupe being the installing officer. The officers were installed for Kadimah Gate: Master Zionist, Abe Herman; Vice-Master Zionist, Ed. Moritz; recorder, Miss Trimmie; treasurer, Miss Anna; guard, Jesse Moritz; orator, Celia Levy; trustees, Milton Houtard, Ada Engelman, Lisie Shadrow.

Sir Montefiore gate officers were installed as follows: Master Zionist, A. J. Mass; Vice-master Zionist, M. Levy; treasurer, N. Rosenblatt; recorder, G. M. Lewis; guard, K. Koppel; conductor, J. Shanks; trustees, E. Solomonson, I. N. Lewis, I. Levitt.

An orchestra under the leadership of Celia Levy, consisting of Miss Lizzie Shapiro, Miss Lena Levy, Miss Mary Rogowsky, Master Sam Lachman, Master Morris Rosenblatt, Master David Rogowsky, rendered fine selections. Speeches were made by Mr. Mass and Rev. Dr. Reynolds. There was a reception by Miss Leiman and a piano duet by Miss Celia Levy and Shapiro. After this refreshments were served and about fifty people pronounced the entertainment a huge success.

Bain Under Arrest Again.

Patrolman Jim Williams yesterday picked up James Bain on a description furnished by Sheriff Belknap of Weber county. Bain is wanted at Ogden on the charge of robbery. He was arrested here last September, accused of complicity in a saloon hold-up. He remained in jail for two months and then, without evidence, was unable to get evidence enough to convict him, he was released on November 11th. Since that time no evidence has been secured and the Ogden officers arrived at the conclusion that they could convict Bain if they had him back.

When Williams brought Bain in the latter said he had just come in from Colorado where he had been and had taken a room at the Salvation army lodging house. He did not deny his identity, but declared he had nothing to do with the crime of which he is accused.

AMUSEMENTS.

Manager Pope of the Salt Lake Theater is negotiating for an asbestos curtain, which will be shipped from the East by express, and will probably be in place when the house is opened for the next performance, two weeks hence. The theater is well equipped for the prompt extinguishment of a fire on the stage should one start there, but in view of the apprehension resulting from the Chicago fire, Mr. Pope has decided to make additional provision for the safety of audiences, and therefore arrangements for the asbestos curtain are being made. In order to familiarize the people with all the ways of getting out of the house, a sign will be placed on each exit.

The next attraction at the Grand Theater will be "An Eye on Hubby," which comes Thursday night for the rest of the week.
